REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The acknowledged success of the constitutional law in Kansas, the wonderful victory in favor of prohibition in Iowa, the simultaneous efforts in many States--north and south, east and west—to secure the submission of "Prohibitory Amendments" to a popular vote, and the universal alarm on the part of liquor dealers, driving them to defiance of law, should cause christian men everywhere to thank God and take courage.

This spontaneous popular uprising against the blighting curse of the age is evidently in answer to prayers, which so long have been ascending to God from broken hearts and ruined homes, for the awakening, helping spirit that should enlist and unite the churches of every name and order against the encroachments of the liquor traffic.

Remembering that Methodism has always been a determined foe to evil and vice of whatever form, social or political, the Methodists of of Indiana, and especially the ministers of the four conferences, will not be found wanting in the present great moral crisis.

In view of our past record in the interest of domestic peace and national prosperity, both of which are ruthlessly invaded by an unrelenting destroyer, therefore Resolved, 1st, That we demand of the next General Assembly their agreement to the submission of the proposed prohibitory constitutional amendment to a direct vote of the people at a special election.

Resolved, 2d, That as members of the South-East Indiana Conference, we here place on record our united petition to the next Legislature for such agreement to such submission.

Resolved, 3d, That we will vote for no man for the Legislature unless we are assured that he will support the submission of the amendment.

Resolved, 4th, That, in the event of its successful passage through the next Legislature before the session of our next annual Conference, we hereby pledge ourselves to an active advocacy of the said prohibitory amendment.

Resolved, 5th, That we refer with pride to the grand work of Bishop Hurst in leading the Methodist hosts of Iowa in their late glorious triumph.

Resolved, 6th, That we endorse and highly approve the course of all public journals which have ably and manfully defended popular sovereignty on the question of submitting the several proposed constitutional amendments to a direct vote of the people.

We further recommend systematic temperance effort in all our churches, especially among the children and youth.

Respectfully submitted,

P. MCNUTT, Secretary. W. W. SNYDER, Chairman.

MEMOIRS.

REV. WILLIAM HARRISON.

REV. WILLIAM HARRISON was born near Aurora, Indiana, September 26th, 1830: died Sunday, April 19th, 1882. He experienced religion and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in February, 1849. His boyhood days were spent in the county of his birth. Four years of his early manhood were devoted to teaching school.

He was married to Miss Isadore Lathrop, of Virginia, March 22d, 1855. Was licensed as a local preacher in the church of God August 25th, 1855, by Rev. F. C. Holliday, Presiding Elder at that time of Lawrenceburg District. In September following he was received on trial in the South Eastern Indiana Conference, which held its annual session that fall in Shelbyville, Bishop Scott presiding. His first appointment was Liberty Circuit. He afterward served as pastor of the following charges in the order in which they are named: Manilla, St. Omer, Fairland, Rushville, Fairfield, Laurel, Jeffersonville, Third Street Madison, Kent, Seymour, Brookville, Columbus, Moore's Hill, Rising Sun, and finally to Brookville the second time. This year finished a life of faithful work in the ministry. He was elected to Deacons' Orders in September, 1857, while the Conference was in session at Aurora, Ind., and was ordained at the same session by Bishop Morris. Two years later he was elected to Elders' Orders, and was ordained by Bishop Scott.

In July, 1879, while doing faithful work as pastor in Rising Sun, he suffered from a severe attack of bronchitis, but by the best medical treatment the more violent symptoms of the disease passed away, and by Conference he was thought able for work, and was appointed to Brookville station. But it proved to be a year of physical struggle and mental anxiety. His health continued to decline, but by extra exertion and the help of ministerial friends the appointments were filled, and the interests of the charge well maintained. A number were baptized, and several adults added to the church. But it proved his last work on earth. At the session of the Conference held at Shelbyville that fall he was granted a superannuated relation. Thus ended the journey of an itinerant life, which began in the same place just twenty-six years before; and though to one full of noble ambition, and who has the interests of the church at heart, it is hard to quit the active service and at once cease to mingle with his brethren in the ministry and to care for the flock; yet he murmured not a word. He who called him to had called him from the ministry, and He does all things well. Brother Harrison only said: "God's will be accomplished. He has made my duty clear to me, and I have not a word of complaint against my lot or my brethren in the ministry."

He was patient during his entire sickness; always had a word of encouragement for his pastor, and was deeply interested in the work of saving souls. He frequently expressed a warm attachment to his ministerial brethren. He attended church and took part in the services as long as he was able. His peace with God was permanent; his faith never wavered; he knew in whom he had trusted. He talked of death with all the calmness one would talk of a summer's journey, and put his house in order for the occasion. When the messenger came he was ready; with his "lamp trimmed and burning" he entered into the "marriage supper of the Lamb."

As a preacher, Brother Harrison was clear and logical; as a pastor, kind and faithful; as a brother in the ministry, highly esteemed courteous in society, a man among men, wielding an influence for the good of all. Yet the beauty and gentleness of his character were nowhere shown as within the circle of his own family. He treated each member thereof with the respect due so honorable members of society. Love was the law of his home, and he endeavored to write it on each heart—teaching them to "be kindly, affectioned one to another with brotherly love, in honor prefering one another."

He leaves a wife, the companion of his itinerant life, two daughters and a son; one dying in infancy preceded him to the land of peace. May God bless and care for those who remain, and so keep them here, that when life's journey shall end they will be an unbroken family in the mansion above.

ISAAC HAMPTON TOMLINSON

Was born at Bridgeport, New Jersey, May 12th, 1822. In his twenty-eighth year he made a clear profession of saving faith in Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and shortly thereafter was licensed as a local preacher, and after spending about three years in Cincinnati in the drug business he moved to the vicinity of North Bend, Ohio, and at once entered with great zeal and much efficiency upon the work to which he felt his Master had called him. At Mt. Nebo, Miamitown and Harrison he conducted very successful revival meetings, the one at Harrison being the most extensive and thorough ever known there. In 1860–1 he traveled, as supply, Mt. Carmel Circuit, in the bounds of this Conference, and in the fall of 1861 was admitted on trial into the South-East Indiana Conference. His appointments in the Conference were Columbia, Fairland, Mt. Auburn, Manchester and Acton. During these years of pastoral life he was abundant in labors and signally successful in winning souls and building up the church. At his last charge, Acton, his health broke entirely down and he took a superannuated relation to the Conference, which he sustained up to the time of his death, covering a period of sixteen years, and during all this time he was an intense sufferer in both body and mind, but ever found by faith the adequacy of grace. His death occurred suddenly, making an inquest necessary, the verdict of which was "death from appolexy."

He was twice married, first to Martha Lemon and second to Jane E. Hall. He was the father of three children—but one of whom lives, Dr. S. L. Tomlinson.

Brother Tomlinson was a true itinerant, an ardent christian, a truly noble man.

His death occurred while alone in his office, as is supposed, February 27th, 1882. His funeral took place from Christie Chapel, Cincinnati, March 1st, 1882. His remains were deposited in Wesleyan Cemetery, Cumminsville, Ohio, there to await the first and glorious resurrection.

REV. MARK HAINS MULLIN

Was born in Warren county, Ohio, August 11th, 1815; died March 9th,

1882. He was of Scotch and Welsh descent on the father's side, and of English on the mother's. He was the oldest of a family of nine children. His father having been in the war of 1812, and losing his health, the maintenance of the family fell chiefly upon himself, and being in limited circumstances he early formed habits of industry and self-reliance. His opportunities for education were such only as the country schools scantily afforded at that time, but he was a diligent student all his life. His early manhood was spent principally on the farm and in teaching school. He was married to Harriet, daughter of Judge Ogden, of Wayne county, Indiana, August 10th, 1840. Their family consists of four sons and five daughters, the two oldest being dead. His wife died March 31st, 1872. He was married again to Mary McLathlin, of Richmond, Indiana, September 8th, 1875. Their union was brief, she dying December 1st, 1877. Brother Mullin was converted October 20th 1837; licensed to preach September 15th, 1854, and admitted to South-East Indiana Conference October 1st, 1855, and appointed to Napoleon; in '56 to Canaan; '57 to Utica; '58 and '59 to Vienna; '60 and '61 to St. Louis; '62, '63 and '64 to Milroy; '65 and '66 to Carthage; '67 and '68 to Mt. Carmel; '69, '70 and '71 to Blooming Grove; '72, '73 and '74 to Abington; '75 to Milton; '76 to St. Paul; '77 to Milford, where, after a few months' labor, his health having failed, he was compelled to abandon the work. From '78 to his decease he sustained a supperannuated relation. Nature endowed him with many of her choicest gifts. He was possessed of a clear, comprehensive mind, rich in thought and ready in expression. There was in his nature a strong vein of wit and humor—quick in repartee. A chief trait in his character was, when his opinion was asked for, he did not give an answer till he had carefully investigated. His judgment, therefore, being highly estimated, made him a leader in society. In manner he was frank and free. In habits plain and unostentatious. In disposition sweet and gentle, meek and humble. He saw life always on the sunny side. He was not disposed to complain, find fault, or burden others with his troubles; even in his severest illness he never murmured. Only those that have experienced so active a life as the ministry for years and then a sudden and long confinement, can know the severe trial. Only superabounding grace can sustain and make submissive to the chastenings of Providence. Socially he had few equals. His sweet and gentle disposition, buoyant spirits won all hearts immediately to him, both young and old. He lives in the hearts of the people among whom he labored, both in and outside of the church. He had a high appreciation of his friends, yet his friendship was not confined to a narrow circle. As a preacher he excelled—clear, logical and forcible, evincing much thought and careful preparation. He aimed not at eloquence, but seizing the great points in his subject he presented them in a lucid and simple style, which made him truly eloquent. He was prompt in his ministerial and conference duties, ready for every occasion, and always meeting the expectation of the people. The ministry has lost an efficient worker, the church a faithful member; but we are consoled with the thought that our loss is his gain.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

Your committee are convinced that there is in this country a growing tendency to disregard the day of the Lord. Even professing christians are becoming lax and careless on this subject, which we believe to be vital to christianity. In many places there is an undisguised effort to make it a holiday instead of a day of rest and worship.

The strong conviction of your committee is that every gospel minister should more than ever before be in earnest in urging the claims of the christian Sabbath on the conscience of the church, and we recommend that all the preachers of our Conference persistently represent to the people the ruinous consequences of Sabbath desecration. We would have them call the attention of the whole church to the fact that Sabbath desecration is just as bad in christians at their camp-meetings as it is in infidels in a beer garden; that it is no better for christians to buy and sell, or permit to be bought and sold, ice-cream, lemonade, soda-water, etc., on the Sabbath than it is for these things to be done at a saengerfest on that day. Would not the Master, should he visit some of our so-called camp-meetings, declare them places of merchandise rather than places of prayer? We recommend that the trustees of all camp-meetings held within our bounds close and keep closed the gates during the entire Sabbath. Wherefore,

Resolved, That we, as members of the South-East Indiana Conference, pledge ourselves to discountenance and oppose all camp or other meetings where these things are done or permitted to be done, and where the running of Sunday trains is encouraged or allowed.

R. R. BALDWIN, Secretary. J. H. DODDRIDGE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

While recognizing the superior excellence of our almost perfect public school system, and its wonderful agency in advancing every class and condition of society to higher planes of intelligence, we would not in the least abate our zeal for our own denominational schools and colleges, in which not only mental and moral, but religious culture is impressed to a degree not possible to be obtained by mere secular training.

We therefore recommend, for the careful consideration of the Conference, the following report of the condition and work of the several educational institutions under your control and patronage:

1.—INDIANA ASBURY UNIVERSITY.

We learn from the Conference Visitors' report that the members of the Faculty were at their posts of duty and performing faithfully the work severally committed to them. We note with pleasure the great efficiency of the President and the Faculty.

An extensive revival of religion has prevailed during the past year, resulting in the conversion of about two hundred students.

Most excellent and almost universal good order prevails among the students.

The Board of Trustees and Visitors, at its June session, resolved to raise $100,000 additional endowment fund, that being the amount the interest of which, at six per cent. per annum, will meet all the yearly deficiency of expenses of the present working force of the university.

The Board is quite well assured, too, that if the four Indiana Conferences, and the State at large, will become responsible for this $100,000, a friend of the institution, who is as liberal as he is able, will place the institution on a financial basis equal to the most advanced universities of our country. This part of our report is recommended especially to the Conference for favorable action. Attention is also called to the approaching semi-centennial of Indiana Methodism, to be celebrated in Indianapolis, October 17th, and we suggest that on that occasion a special and united effort be made in the financial interest of Asbury University.

Your committee desire to emphasize the action of the Trustees, referred to in the Visitors' report, whereby it is resolved to raise $100,000 in the four Indiana Conferences, and thus, by securing the princely gift promised, to place our beloved Asbury in a financial condition long desired and prayed for by every true lover of Methodist education.

We therefore unhesitatingly recommend that this Conference assume its proportion of the $100,000, and provide at once for a provisional subscription of $25,000.

In order to awaken our people to a ready response to this proposition, we recommend that all our preachers, at as early a date as practicable, lay the matter before their congregations and press upon them the necessity of immediate action.

We also recommend that our liberal laymen in all our charges be solicited to attend the semi-centennial of Indiana Methodism on the approaching 17th of October, with the express purpose of aiding in this grand educational enterprise.

We recommend for re-election as Trustees of Indiana Asbury University, the Rev. F. C. Holliday, D. D., the Hon. Will Cumback, LL. D., and the Hon. A. C. Downey, LL. D., whose several terms of office expire at the date of the adoption of this report.

We recommend as Conference Visitors, the Rev. John S. Tevis and the Rev. R. R. Baldwin.

II--MOORE'S HILL COLLEGE.

The friends of this institution are to be congratulated upon their good fortune in securing as its president, the Rev. L. G. Adkinson, A. M. Brother Adkinson shall be welcome to all our homes and pulpits and people to present the claims of this college.

The endowment fund of this institution exceeds, by a small amount, $20,000.

The Trustees, at their last session, resolved to commemorate the centennial of the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church by endowing a Lady Professorship; and for the more speedy consummation of their object, committed the supervision and control of the same to the President, L. G. Adkinson.

Your committee heartily approve the enterprise, both as meeting an imperative need of the institution and also as a just recognition of woman's God-given aptness to teach, and we will second the efforts that may be made to accomplish the end proposed.

The institution is in need of about $900 to serve as prepaid interest on fund in course of being raised, to be applied to the current expenses of the college.

To meet this $900, and also our annual pledge of $300 to the Asbury library endowment, we recommend the apportionment among our several charges by the Presiding Elders, the sum of $1,200, and trust that no preacher will fail to present this claim.

We mention with gratitude to almighty God the revival that prevailed among the students of Moore's Hill College last winter, during which nearly all the students in attendance professed religion.

We recommend for confirmation as Trustees of Moore's Hill College, W. T. Friedley, Rev. A. N. Marlatt, Benjamin F. Draper, George W.

Wood, Rev. J. H. Martin, A. M., Rev. Joseph Cotton and Rev. J. A. Sargent, A. M., B. D.

For Conference Visitors, Rev. V. W. Tevis, Rev. Henry Morrow; Rev. S. A. Bright, Rev. David Robertson and Rev. J. H. Doddridge.

III—GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

We present the report of the Conference Visitors, to-wit:

REPORT OF CONFERENCE VISITORS.

We, your committee, attended the examinations and other exercises connected with the commencement of this noble institution. We were gratified to notice the thoroughness of the examination, which evinced that excellent work had been done on the part of both the students and the able board of instructors. There have been in attendance about one hundred students the past year. Twenty-one of these graduated. The students and teachers evince enthusiasm in their work. The demand for well-trained ministers is so great that we would recommend all young men having the ministry in view to attend this most excellent institute.

The financial condition of the institute is highly gratifying. The funded debt of $9,200, which was contracted in rebuilding the property which was destroyed by the Chicago fire of 1871, has all been liquidated, except about $7,000. The income of the past year exceeds the expenses some several hundred dollars. The present endowment insures a net annual income of $2,400, so we are able to report that this, our noble Biblical Institute, is in every way in a most prosperous condition.

J. A. SARGENT,
J. H. DODDRIDGE.

Dr. H. B. Ridgeway has been added to the Faculty, which can but furnish new and strong attraction to all young ministers who are desirous of a thorough biblical and theological education. We would recommend it to them most heartily.

We recommend as Conference Visitors, the Rev. R. D. Black, A, M., and the Rev. J. W. Duncan, B. D.

We call especial attention to the report of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the current year, 1882, and exhort the brethren to increased educational effort, especially in the direction of the "Children's Day" collection.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. TEVIS, Secretary. F. C. HOLLIDAY, Chairman.

No. 8.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

The work being done by the Church Extension Society commends itself not only to our great Methodism, but to other denominations as well. Whilst your committee is opposed to passing, annually, resolutions as a mere form endorsing this enterprise, they most earnestly ask in their stead the heartiest co-operation and support of every christian pastor and layman in the church.

We hereby commend the Conference Board of last year for its enterprise in publishing and sending out circulars over the Conference, containing valuable information on this subject.

We deplore the fact that any blanks should be found in this column of our reports. We are also unable to reconcile with our convictions of ministerial duty the fact that many charges having a membership of three hundred, collections amounting to one, two and three dollars only are reported.

J. W. DUNCAN, Secretary. J. N. BEARD, President.

No. 9.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

Realizing that what are known as popular amusements, such as dancing, theater-going, card-playing, attending circuses and horse-races, are detrimental to all true spirituality and an open violation of the spirit and letter of our church discipline, we call upon our people to shun every appearance of these evils by example and precept.

It is our unshaken belief that what are known as card-parties and parlor-dances are stepping stones to greater evils, and should be at once discouraged by our church members and absolutely prohibited in our homes.

J. W. DUNCAN, Secretary. M. B. HYDE, President.

No. 10.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, It is with feelings of gratitude that we recognize the profound wisdom of the founders of this society in discovering the short road to success by at once reaching the foundations of social and religious life, wherein to plant the truths of our holy christianity. And.

WHEREAS, We believe it to be one of the most economical ways in which to expend money and labor in our missionary fields, therefore

Resolved, That it is the duty of the church to encourage this organization in its great work in all of our pastoral charges where it is found to exist. And that we pledge our influence and co operation in the organization of societies where they do not exist.

J. F. MCCLAIN, Secretary. J. A. SARGENT, Chairman.

No. 11.

REPORT FOR THE BIBLE CAUSE.

WHEREAS, The word of God contains all that is essential to the enlightenment and salvation of the world;

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society is the only organization in our midst which is engaged exclusively in distributing the holy scriptures throughout the world;

WHEREAS, A general effort will be made in the near future by this society to more thoroughly canvas the United States in the interests of this good cause than ever before, therefore,

Resolved, That we pledge the authorities of the American Bible Society our hearty sympathy and cordial support in their efforts to give to the waste places of earth the light of divine truth.

Where no collection is taken within the bounds of our charges by the local authorities, we will present the cause to our people, giving them an opportunity to contribute to the same.

We will also try, as far as possible, to secure from the local authorities, where collections have been taken, the amounts contributed by our congregations and report the same to the annual Conference.

C. C. EDWARDS, Secretary. T. W. CONNER, President.

No. 12.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

One of the most important instruments for the promotion of Christ's kingdom in the world, and one of the necessary factors in church work, is the Sabbath-school.

While we believe that the journals and leaves used in our Sabbath-schools are useful aids, yet we would warn the teachers and scholars against the growing tendency to depend wholly upon these helps in their preparation. We would recommend our people to use our own publications.

We regret that far too large a proportion of our church members seldom attends the Sabbath-school, either as teachers or pupils, and give little or nothing to their support. Let us try to remedy this state of affairs.

Recognizing the helpfulness of the children in church work, and of church work to the children, let us see to it that the opportunity be given in the way of missionary organization, children's day, etc., according to the divine plan. Also, let special efforts be made for the conversion of our Sabbath-school children.

J. W. TURNER, Secretary. G. E. NEVILLE, Chairman.

No. 13.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, The use of tobacco is, by the best medical authorities, pronounced injurious to the physical organism. And,

WHEREAS, The authorities of our church, in General Conference assembled, have instituted disciplinary rules restricting and prohibiting its use by candidates for our ministry, therefore,

Resolved, That we insist more than ever that these rules be sustained and enforced, and pastors everywhere be requested to present the subject to their people, and endeavor to obliterate the abominable evil from our land.

W. S. HAMLIN, Secretary. J. W. TURNER, Chairman.

No. 14.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

The Board of Managers of the Freedmen's Aid Society have appropriated $125,000 as the amount necessary to prosecute its enlarged work, and have apportioned $1,800 as the sum to be raised by the South-East Indiana Conference.

In view of the importance of this educational work, the necessity of its early accomplishment, and the successful results already attained, we most heartily recommend it to our people's support. And we suggest that the Presiding Elders apportion it equitably to each charge in the several districts, and that the pastors in charge take collections in all their churches to meet their assessments.

J. P. PELL, Secretary. WM. H. WYDMAN, Chairman.

No 15.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TRACTS.

We notice with pleasure the increasing attention given by the pastors to this benevolence in our church, and that very few failed to take this collection this year. Recognizing this silent evangelist as a helper in preaching the gospel to the people, and rejoicing in the fact that it has been the agent of bringing many to Christ and salvation,

Resolved, That we see to it that the collection for the Tract Society be taken in all our charges the coming conference year; that we will endeavor to secure the full assessment for this cause; that we use the disciplinary committee in our charges in putting these messages of gospel truth in the hands and homes of all the families of our respective fields of labor.

A. E. WALKER, Secretary. GEO. COCHRAN, President.

THE LIBRARY OF THE
JUL 1 - 1936
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

THE PEOPLE'S CYCLOPEDIA

OF

Universal Knowledge

IS THE LATEST, CHEAPEST AND MOST COMPLETE CYCLOPEDIA PUBLISHED.

15,000 Sets Sold the First Year of its Publication.

In Comparison with other works of a similar aim and scope the PEOPLE'S CYCLOPEDIA has more than double as many subjects as Appleton's, Chambers, or the Brittannica.

The People's Cyclopedia has over 5,000 engravings, illustrating every possible department of knowledge.

Its Handsomely Colored Maps and Charts constitute a complete atlas of the whole world.

It is brought down to the year 1882, and gives the latest foreign and domestic statistics, including the census of the United States and European countries.

The Rev. Dr. Sims, Chancellor of Syracuse University, says: "I have Appleton's, the Brittannica, Chambers', and THE PEOPLE'S CYCLOPEDIA. I refer to the 'People's' more frequently than to all the others put together, and I am never disappointed."

Dr. John W. Beach, President of Wesleyan University, says: "I have bought THE PEOPLE'S CYCLOPEDIA, and the more I examine the more I value it. It is full, dense, rich, and scholarly. No one who buys it can regret his purchase. Every family, library, and school ought to buy it."

The President and entire faculty of Bates College unite in an enthusiastic endorsement of THE PEOPLE'S CYCLOPEDIA, and say: "We find it a work to be cordially and unreservedly recommended. It is emphatically a Cyclopedia for the people, moderate in price, but great in usefulness.

"It is accurate and up with the times in its teaching of science, reliable and full in giving dates, and in its historical and biographical departments it gives just what well-informed persons need to know."

"Its maps and charts are superior to those of any other work of its kind, and its illustrations are abundant and remarkably true to the subjects illustrated. The Appendixes treat of very important matters upon which information is not very available, but very much desired and needed. Those alone give the work high and permanent value."
